TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

IT GIVES ME the greatest pleasure to commend the character and workmanship of Mr Gary Broadie, whom my wife and I have known for thirteen years - ever since we moved here.

The first practical job he did for us was to fit up shelves on the basement walls.

Since then, from time to time he has dealt with the external paintwork - windows and doors - and even white-washed an external wall.

Mr Broadie has always been efficient in what he has undertaken, and I have no hesitation in commending him to any one who required efficient work to be undertaken - and in good time.
